BLOCK C CLUB IS SPONSORING THE FIRST DANCE THAT OPENS COLLEGE SOCIAL SEASON

Charlie Pace and His Jungaleers to Furnish Music for the Occasion.

Friday night, October 9, will mark the Clemson cadets' social debut when the initial Block "C" dance gains sway. Charlie Pace and his Clemson College Jungaleer Orchestra will furnish the necessary rhythm for this gala affair.

This symphony tribe offers better numbers this year than of any previous season, and the waltzes are superb. Twelve members compose this group, and it is experienced, having performed in many various cities this past summer. Charlie and the boys have been practicing tirelessly for the past few weeks and are in top form; ready to pour out the latest and best popular numbers upon the gay followers of Terpis-chore.

One of the largest crowds of the year is expected to be present at this affair since it is the first dance of the year, and it is traditional that the hops sponsored by the Clemson letter men are among the gayest of the season. This one promises to be even more brilliant than any of its predecessors.

By way of reminder, this is to be a strictly formal occasion, and the sponsors mean business. All cadets will wear the prescribed uniform and tuxedos will be in order for others. No person will be admitted to the dance floor without the formal apparel. Needless to say, the hours will be from 10 to 3.

Three hundred invitations have been issued and many of the alumni will be present. Girls will be placed by their hosts. If success comes with work, this hop will be thoroughly enjoyed by everyone for members of the various committees are sparing no pains to make this affair a memorable one.—P. R. C.

DR. L. D. HUFF ELECTED PROFESSOR OF PHYSICS

Will Take Place Formerly Held by Dr. J. C. Hendricks

Dr. L. D. Huff was elected to assistant professorship in physics to succeed Dr. J. C. Hendricks, who was promoted to the associate professorship made vacant by the death of Dr. B. F. Gaines, who died before reporting to Clemson for duty.

Dr. L. D. Huff received the A. B. and M. S. degrees from the University of Oklahoma, and his Ph. D. from California Institute of Technology and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He was laboratory assistant at the University of Oklahoma and teaching fellow at California Institute of Technology. Dr. Huff has published in Physical Review: "Appearance of Forbidden Lines in Spectre", and "Motion of a Dirac Electron in a Magnetic Field".

THE AVON PLAYERS COMING

The Avon Players Company, a group of professional artists who for many years have been identified with the very best in the American Theater and who have been in leading support of such celebrities as Mr. Robert Mantell, Mrs. Fiske, Mr. George M. Cohan, and others of prominence, will come to Clemson on the evening of October 28 and present "Romeo and Juliet." This will be a fine opportunity to hear well-trained actors present a great play.

DR. SIKES AWARDS R. O. T. C. TROPHIES

Clemson Men Commended for Victories at Camp

To the victors belong the spoils so it seemed at the chapel period held last Tuesday, when two score of Clemson men received special commendation of Doctor Sikes for the splendid showing that they made at the R. O. T. C. camp this past summer.

The remarks of Doctor Sikes on the victory of our far-famed Junior-platoon appeared to inspire Colonel Munson to have a sight of professional pride. He brought out the fact that all the platoons representing the various colleges having R. O. T. C. units in the Fourth Corps Area yielded before the onslaught of precision and snap of the two platoons from South Carolina's distinguished military colleges, The Citadel and Clemson.

Cadet Major Talbert, commander of the Junior-platoon, received the coveted cup in behalf of the members of the platoon.

The championship activities of the Tigers were not confined only to excellence in drill, but was also apparent on the athletic field.

Charlie Hogarth, captain of the championship relay team, received the cup indicative of Clemson's prowess on the cinder path.

James P. Littlejohn, captain of the wall-scaling team, was presented with the championship cup in that activity.

A. U. "Buck" Priester, captain of this year's varsity baseball team, received the cup symbolical of ability in diamond activities.

Cadets V. L. Bethea and J. A. Weston, members of the R. O. T. C. Rifle Team at Camp Perry were awarded medals for excellent scores made as members of this team.

All five Clemson men participating in the National Matches at Camp Perry were awarded Expert Medals in the National Individual Match. These men were V. L. Bethea, J. A. Weston, J. P. Littlejohn, F. E. Johnstone, and S. D. Watson, all were members of the Clemson Indoor Rifle Team last winter. The last three men were members of the South Carolina Civilian Team at Camp Perry which was composed of students from Clemson, Presbyterian College, Wofford, and The Citadel. The National Individual Match in which these medals were won was fired on ranges from 200 yards to 1000 yards inclusive. It is interesting to note that the Clemson men were the only members of the South Carolina Civilian Rifle Team to qualify as Expert Riflemen.—E. M. L.

LITERARY SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

First term officers for the Calhoun Literary Society were elected at the first meeting of the Society last Tuesday night, September 29.

J. H. Saylor was elected vice-president. The other officers are as follows: W. P. Kay, first critic, W. G. Neely, Censor; G. V. Whetstone, recording secretary; M. H. Southerland, corresponding secretary; and W. B. Perry, treasurer. R. F. Causey was appointed

PROMINENT CLEMSON RESIDENT PASSES

L. J. Goodman, Local Postmaster, Laid to Rest in Old Stone Church Cemetery.

Lewis Jones Goodman, for the past seven years postmaster at Clemson College, died at 6:30 A. M. on September 28, at the Anderson County Hospital, a victim of sleeping sickness.

Mr. Goodman had been ill for only one week, having been taken to the Anderson Hospital when physicians diagnosed his illness as sleeping sickness. His death is the source of much regret among his many relatives and among the students of Clemson College, whom he has served so faithfully, in past years.

Mr. Goodman was a former student of Clemson College, and an ex-service man, having held a commission as second lieutenant in a machine gun company during the World War. He was born and reared here, the son of the late J. S. and Mrs. Sallie Goodman.

Mr. Goodman was a Mason, belonging to Clemson College lodge Number 254. He was also a member of the Presbyterian church of Clemson College.

Funeral services were held at four o'clock P. M. on Tuesday, September 29, at the Episcopal church. Dr. W. H. Mills officiated, assisted by the Rev. S. J. L. Crouch. The body was laid to final rest in the historic Old Stone church cemetery. Nephews of the deceased served as active pall-bearers.

SEE "OH, PROFESSOR" IT IS A NEW PLAY

Tuesday Evening, October 13, in the College Chapel

"I love you" says Steve Crandall in his softest tones, but he doesn't know who is who on the University campus that night, and so naturally complications develop. The university track star is in it up to his neck. There is love and intrigue with complications and recombinations.

It is all hilariously funny when you watch it from your seat in the College auditorium. "Oh, Professor" is the name of the play. It's a new play, just off the press—as fresh as a college boy and as funny as a freshman at his first formal dance.

Tuesday evening October 13, a local cast under the direction of experienced coaches from Atlanta will present it to Clemson.

Tickets are now on sale for 50 cents and 25 for cadets and children. At 7 p. m. sharp the curtain goes up.

All together there is a cast that is hard to beat. But one of the chief attractions is the songs and costumes. The Sewell Company has sent several trunks full of beautiful and colorful costumes for the chorus. They are dresses that would be impossible for a local company to arrange.

And the music—lots of it. Orchestra music, catchy songs, chorus numbers, solos, melodies all arranged so as to give the play beauty and finesse.

Everybody is going to see "Oh, Professor!" Tuesday night.

chaplain

As has been the custom in the past, the first term president is elected at the close of the preceding school year. H. C. Woodson was elected to this capacity last year.

GOVERNOR BLACKWOOD SPEAKS TO STUDENTS ON "CHALLENGE OF THE PRESENT SITUATION"

DANCE SCHEDULE FOR 1931-32 ANNOUNCED

Block C Hop Formally Opens Social Season

Ten officers of the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore Dancing Clubs, and the Block C. Club met in Dr. Sikes' office with Colonel Munson and The President last Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock for the purpose of formulating an official dance schedule for this season.

The schedule is as follows:

Block "C" Dance—Oct. 9
Ladies' Dance—Oct. 30
Junior Dance—Nov. 27
Senior Dance—Dec. 17
Sophomore Dance—Jan. 29.
Mid-Winter—Feb. 26
Athletic Ball—March 18
Taps Ball—April 15
Junior-Senior—May 13
Finals—May 27, 28, & 30.

In consideration of the 1931 dollar, it was unanimously agreed that all the dances this year would be considerably cheaper than the prices paid last season.

Warning is hereby issued to those who plan to utilize the "One-eyed Connelly" method for obtaining entrance to any of the dances that a careful virgil will be kept, and those so unfortunate as to be apprehended will be served a very distasteful penalty.

All the dances are to be strictly formal. The cadets will wear the prescribed full dress uniform, and other guests will don tuxedos. The ladies of course, may choose their own apparel.

It was proposed and agreed to that all surplus money derived from the Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Block "C" dances be turned over to the Athletic Association to establish a fund for the purpose of obtaining new experienced athletes for Clemson in the future.

It is planned that the dances begin at 10:00 P. M., and conclude at the stroke of three, with a 30 minute intermission. Should plans develop as expected, these five hours of dancing to the tune of already engaged orchestras will be sufficient for any normal dance lover.—P. R. C.

PROFESSOR LIPPINCOTT TO COACH GLEE CLUB

Robert Causey Elected President; Flinn Gilland, Business Manager

On Monday night September 28, the first meeting of the Glee Club for this scholastic year was held. As has been the annual custom, the election of officers instead of being executed at the end of the last college term took place at this meeting. The officers elected were Robert Causey, president, and Flinn Gilland, business manager. During the past season these positions were held by J. P. Hetterick and Romaine Crawford, respectively, who left behind them vacancies difficult to fill.

Professor W. L. Lippincott, who has competently directed the Glee Club for the past several years, announces that practice will begin in the very near future. A number of the former members attended the initial meeting and around these men as a nucleus will be

Full Military Honors Paid
State Official on Visit to Clemson

"The Challenge of the Present Situation" was the central theme of an address delivered by Governor Ira C. Blackwood in the Clemson College auditorium to a crowded house of faculty, cadets, and visitors on Friday, October 2. Governor Blackwood told the cadets they were especially favored in the attractiveness of the climate and surroundings of Clemson and in the privileges of college under more broad-minded faculties and more liberalized curricula. The present trying period, one of the most difficult the Southern people have ever been required to pass through, is a challenge to manhood, he said, and an opportunity to measure up to responsibility. Past difficulties have had to be met by people arriving on the scene at that time.

"I am having a very pleasant visit at Clemson", said Governor Blackwood, "being revived and refreshed by the many beautiful and interesting things seen here. I am going to be in Atlanta tomorrow to meet Governor Russell of Georgia about the cotton situation. I might guess about what will be the outcome of the conference, but as I do not know I will not venture any forecast."

Governor Blackwood visited the college on a tour of inspection. With the Governor were Charles H. Gerald, private secretary of the Governor, J. M. Smith, State Auditor, and Sam Cannon, State electrician, Columbia; and Clint Summers, State Highway Commissioner, Frank Watkin, Harold Major, and George W. Speer, from Anderson. I. H. Hunt and party were here from Newberry.

On their arrival at noon, Dr. E. W. Sikes, president of Clemson College, extended to the visitors a cordial welcome. Highest Military honors were then accorded Governor Blackwood as Commander-in-chief of the forces of the State. A Guard of Honor came to "Present Arms", the field music sounded four ruffles and four flourishes, followed by the call "The General", and the band struck up "Hail to the Chief". A brief inspection of troops followed.

Governor Blackwood spent the afternoon inspecting the buildings, equipment, various projects, and activities of the college. He left for Atlanta Friday night.

built the current organization. Tryouts should reveal some splendid material among the freshman class. Every cadet is eligible, the club being selected upon quality and proficiency.

Due to the fact that the college was shackled by quarantines the greater part of last spring the Glee Club was unable to take the Spring tour. However, unless something entirely unforeseen develops, a trip comprising an extensive itinerary will be made early in the second semester by the Clemson College songsters.

GREENVILLE MOTORCADE WILL VISIT CLEMSON

A large party of Greenvilleans will make a trip to the Georgia line on October 28th in celebrating the completion of the highway to the border line between South Carolina and Georgia. Short stops will be made at all towns along the road. It is understood that there is a possibility of the group making a short tour of the campus while passing through Clemson.

DANCE REGULATIONS

Dance offer to the cadets of Clemson the most enjoyable features of social life, and should be conducted in a manner appreciative of the benefits.

It is imperative that there be some set of rules governing dances with such large attendances as the ones at Clemson so in this issue is printed a copy of conduct to be complied with at the cadet hops. These regulations were drawn up by the governing board last year and will again be rigidly enforced this term. You are especially urged to read the regulations in order to avoid any unpleasantness, either to yourself or anyone else concerned.

One paragraph of the dance regulations was not enforced so strenuously last year with the result that only one financial statement was published during the entire term, and this was after the Taps Ball.

This year the officers of the Senior Class demand that this regulation be complied with, and that there is published in The Tiger, within ten days after any dance, a complete financial statement.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Spirit! What is its meaning? What does it mean to the cadets at Clemson? Who can answer this question? "I can," said the Rat who was cheering lustily at the last pep meeting. "It means that we furnish the pep and the old boys the meeting." And it's true too? We'll all agree that the old school spirit which was so prevalent several years ago is fast ebbing. Mute evidence that vouches for this is the number of boys in barracks during pep meetings, while several hundred loyal sons yell themselves hoarse in chapel. The former are to be chided; the latter praised. But what's the use of chiding? Let's hope there won't be any need for it in the future. N. C. State is facing us, and the Citadel and Carolina loom up only a short time away. We are going to beat them, but let's EVERYBODY help! The team does its share on the field, and it's only fair that the rest of us give them that backing that is so necessary for success.

SAME REGULATIONS TO GOVERN CONDUCT

Rules Require Orderly Conduct at All Times

1. GENERAL CONDUCT AT ALL DANCES:

(a) General conduct at all dances will be under the supervision of the Military Department.

(b) This department will designate three cadet officers to serve as a floor committee.

(c) Any misconduct on the part of any individual shall be subject to investigation by this committee.

2. INVITATIONS:

(a) Any cadet wishing to extend an invitation to a friend must present a written invitation to the committee.

The committee will then decide if the person or persons are eligible to attend the dance.

(b) A complete list consisting of the following will be kept by the committee and a check of this list will be made as the invitation is presented at the door:

(1) Name and address of the person to whom the invitation is extended.

(2) Name of the cadet extending the invitation.

(3) Invitations shall specify the dress.

3. DRESS

(a) Dress for the cadets shall be as designated by the Military Department.

(b) Dress for civilians shall be formal for all dances.

4. SCHEDULES:

(a) A complete schedule of all dances shall be drawn up and published at the beginning of each year.

(b) This schedule shall be drawn up by the Social Governing Board under the supervision of the Commandant.

5. ADMISSION:

(a) Admission to each dance shall be specified by the board after a thorough investigation of the finances.

6. SELECTION OF ORCHESTRAS:
(a) Orchestras shall be selected by the club sponsoring the dance with the approval of the board.

7. FINANCES:

(a) Finances of each dance shall be handled by the Secretary-Treasurer of the organization sponsoring the dance.

(b) The Treasurer's books are subject at all times to inspection by the business manager of the college.

(c) The Treasurer shall publish in The Tiger a financial statement within ten days after the dance.

8. HOURS:

(a) All dances shall begin at 10 o'clock and close at 3 o'clock except the Junior-Senior which may last until 4 o'clock.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

FIRST SERGEANTS CLUB

HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The First Sergeants Club held the first meeting of the year Monday, Sept. 2, for the purpose of organizing and to elect officers. J. L. O. Foster was elected president, Otis Bowen was elected vice president and R. E. Holman was elected secretary and treasurer. After the election of officers, the meeting was turned over to the new president by Captain G. H. Brigman, retiring president.—F. S. S.

PALMETTO LITERARY SOCIETY

The Palmetto Literary Society held its regular weekly meeting in the Society Hall on Thursday night. The program was opened with a prayer by W. L. Montz. K. E. Neussner presented a speech which drew favorable comment from the critics. The query of the debate for the evening was: Resolved:

"That the honor system should be abolished wherever in force. The affirmative was upheld by C. A. Clayton and W. E. Gore, while the victorious negative team was composed of T. C. Bigger, the night's best speaker, and W. S. Antley.

ALPHA ZETA

The Alpha Zeta met Monday night in the Dairy building. Several important matters were brought up during the meeting and they were decided on before adjourning.

The fraternity has invited the faculty members to make a series of short talks on topics of interest. It is the plan to have a talk at each meeting.

The Alpha Zeta will hold its annual initiation during the week of October 12-19. There will be seven seniors and three juniors as initiates into the fraternity. These pledges are to dress in a costume that befits his major course during the entire week of initiation. There will be a banquet at the termination of initiation.

VESPER SERVICES

Vesper Services were held in the Y auditorium immediately after supper Sunday night. News reels were shown before and after the service. Professor Burton spoke, taking his address from Haggai, saying that we worship the same God our ancestors did, but we have drifted away from him. The founding of our country was dedicated to this God, which makes it all the more reason why we should worship Him. The services were closed with a prayer by Professor Burton.

Apples were given out at the exits after the service.—M. R. V.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER SECRETARY SPEAKS

The Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Councils met in conjunction with the Cabinet in the club room of the "Y" Tuesday evening at seven o'clock to hear Mr. J. H. Minter speak on "The Student Volunteer Work in this Country".

Mr. Minter, the traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer movement of the southeast, presented the objectives of the volunteer work throughout the Southeastern field. Briefly, there are seven definite aims that the Student Volunteer movement strives to accomplish:

- (1) To present a comprehensive view of the world today with special reference to the power and influence of such universal forces as nationalism, communism, and secularism.
- (2) To show how Jesus has attached to himself the attention, admiration, and reverence of the modern world and to set forth the need of making Him more fully known.
- (3) To show that the spirit and power of Jesus are going to ease the clash of men to tame economic forces, to work righteousness, and to satisfy man's restless hunger for God.
- (4) To interpret to students the missionary movement in terms of its present status and trends for the future.
- (5) To portray with accuracy and persuasion the need for continuing missions of help from the West and East and the resultant call for missionaries and intelligent support of missions.
- (6) To train Christian students in world concern and intercession.
- (7) To present the need and cost of the Christian World enterprise.

—C. P. H.

CABINET MEETING

A short but important business meeting was held by the members of the cabinet for a few moments in the Cabinet room of the "Y" Tuesday evening for a few minutes.

The meeting was called to order by the President, and Mr. Roy Cooper led a short devotional. Evening watch, Bible study, Freshmen, and delegates to Camp Adger was the business to be discussed in the short period of time. A. M. Johnstone and C. P. Hogarth were elected to represent the Cabinet at Camp Adger on the week-end of October 9-11. O. R. Smith was selected as the alternate. The trip to Birmingham, Alabama, was postponed until a later date on account of the heavy schedule of events at this time of the year. The Cabinet will make the trip to Birmingham November 13-15. It is anticipated to attend the Clemson-University of Alabama game during the week-end. The meeting was adjourned before the regular time so that the members could hear Mr. John Minter speak on the work of The Student Volunteer Movement.

SENIOR COUNCIL RETREAT

Ten members of the Senior council accompanied by Mr. Theo Vaughan and Mrs. McCaw departed from Clemson Saturday morning at ten o'clock for Blue Ridge, North Carolina.

The first stop of the trip was to be at Greenville in order to get the girls that were going on the week-end house party. After loading the bus with girls the group departed for Blue Ridge. Upon arrival at Blue Ridge lunch was immediately prepared. The afternoon was devoted to a hike and a chestnut hunt. After hours of enjoyment the group returned to the cottage and later went to Black Mountain and Montreat. After supper at the cottage the following program was rendered:

Devotional—J. K. Durst.

Purpose of Council—Lucius Delk.

Reading—Elizabeth Greene.

Music—D. M. Cox.
Songs—O. R. Smith.
Discussion by all.

After the meeting the remainder of the evening was devoted to individual interviews. Another hike was made to High Top Sunday morning and a short but impressive program was given. At three o'clock the group returned to Clemson after a very enjoyable week-end.

SOPHOMORE COUNCIL MEETS

The regular meeting of the Sophomore Y. Council was held Thursday evening, October 1, in the club room of the Y. M. C. A. The meeting was opened with devotion led by Mr. Holtzendorff. Then the group decided to elect a vice-president to replace Russell Eaton who at last meeting was chosen president. S. G. Seabrook was elected to the office of vice-president.

Mr. Holtzendorff told the members of a possibility that they could send delegates to the State Student's Volunteer Conference to be held in Columbia October 3 and 4 and to the Students Conference to be held at Camp Adger October 10 and 11. Mr. G. H. Aull then gave the group a very interesting talk on "The Divorce Problem."

by D. M. Cox after which prayer was offered.

Business was then taken up and two men were elected to represent at the meeting at Camp Adger October 9, 10, and 11. The question of new membership was also discussed, and a rule that if a member was absent twice in succession he be notified and if not present for the third meeting without a good reason he will be dropped from the group.

The meeting was then turned over to Prof. Burton, who continued with his lecture.—C. P. W.

—F. S. S.

JUNIOR COUNCIL MEETING

The Junior Council enjoyed its first social meeting of the year on Friday evening, Oct. 2, at the home of Mr. Holtzendorff. The meeting was opened with a scripture reading by H. J. Webb, followed by a prayer by E. C. Bigger. A very interesting talk was made by Mr. Holtzendorff on the subject: "The Meaning of Prayer". Mr. Holtzendorff illustrated his talk by explaining the meaning of certain parts of the Lord's Prayer. At the close of this talk delicious refreshments were served, and the meeting was thrown open to informal discussion. The meeting was closed with a prayer by Mr. Holtzendorff. Thirteen council members were present, and a very enjoyable evening was spent together.

Sober Cadet—I've come to bail you out.

Drunk (in jail)—You don't-hic need to bail me-hic-out, I'm not full.

"One pint in your favor," said the sophomore, as he poured gin in the punch.

He—I dreamed of you last nite. She (coldly)—Really?

He—Yes, then I woke up, shut the window, and put an extra blanket on the bed.

First Hula dancer—I love Tom. Second Hula—So do I, dearie, let's pull straws for him.

Talbert—People living together get to look alike.

She—Here's your ring. I dare not risk it.

She—No Harry, I'm saving my kisses.

He—I'd like to add to your collection, dear.

Andy—I had a terrible time with Amos last night.

King Fish—Amos who?

Andy—A mosquito.

To Whom it may concern:

Don't worry if the wolf is hanging around your door. That is better than a college boy in a raccoon coat.

Freshman—Professor, the next room is on fire.

Prof. Holmes—Why worry me? Am I in the next room?

Pat Calhoun—Ought I to marry a girl intellectually my inferior?

Father—If possible, yes.

First old maid—If a man ever kissed me, I believe I'd die.

Second old maid—Yes, I'd be ready then myself.

Lim—Did you pass your exam honestly?

Co-ed—Certainly. When I kissed the professor I meant it.

Ben Pickens—I like kisses with a kick to them.

She—That's the kind you'll get if father catches us.

She—My lips are for another. Handsome Clinton—WHAT?

She—Another kiss, silly.

Most any girl knows how to use her head—especially when it's on a man's head.

Defendent—But your honor, I am a college boy.

Judge—Ignorance is no excuse.

Rubin Seigle—Can't I get in the show on my face?

Holtzendorff—No, but you can go out on it.

My girl was painted by a famous artist.

That's nothing. Mine paints herself every day.

Jack (covering her eyes)—If you can't guess who it is in three guesses I'm going to kiss you.

Jane—Jack Frost; Father Time; Santa Claus.

It's the stripes and the cap—I only suggest it.

Dick—I won't leave you for a minute after we are married.

Dora—Why, you suspicious thing.

That girl shows distinction in her clothes.

You mean distinctly, don't you?

She—I don't like the clothes you are wearing.

He—I'm sorry, but they are the best my roommate can afford.

So Jack told you of his love?

Well, not exactly. He just went through the motions.

FORGETFULNESS OF SENIORS APPARENT

The college senior fared rather more badly than the college freshman in a report issued this past summer by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

According to the report, based on tests given more than 10,000 college students in Pennsylvania colleges and universities, the "ravages of forgetting" caused the senior to lose, even before getting his sheepskin, much of the knowledge he had acquired during four years as school.

"The college senior recognizes only 61 out of 100 words in familiar use by educated persons," the report said. "The effect of college on the word supply of the ordinary student appears to be almost negligible and in some cases positively injurious."

"The school and college curriculum," the report added, "consists of little else but isolated packages of specific ideas, segregated for the time being in self-contained courses, elected semester-wise and cut off by examinations and credits from any other living conditions. The sacredness of such systems of credit coinage dominates both teacher and pupil . . .

"The raw information which the courses had presented and which with proper treatment, might have contributed to a fine body of intellectual equipment, was dumped outright at the close of the successive terms, and when the student came out of college his effective knowledge amounted to little more than when as a freshman he entered the institution."

SURE! When a word fits, you know it! "Satisfy" just fits CHESTERFIELD. A smoker picks up a package, and he likes its neat appearance—no heavy inks or odors from ink. That satisfies him.

Then he examines a Chesterfield. It is well-filled; it is neat in appearance; the paper is pure white. And that satisfies him.

He lights up. At the very first puff he likes the flavor and the rich aroma. He decides that it tastes better—neither raw nor over-sweet; just pleasing and satisfying.

Then he learns it is milder. That's another way of saying that there is nothing irritating about it. And again he's satisfied!

TIGER TEAM PREPARES FOR N. C. STATE GAME

Reuben Seigel Out with Injuries from Tennessee Game

If fate is kind and the ghost that has shadowed Clemson for the past two weeks is dispelled, Saturday should be the day of all redemption for the Bengals. Minus the services of Bowles and Seigel, stellar linemen, Neely's cohorts will take the field with the odds against them, but nevertheless smarting under a terrible lashing by the Vols and straining at a leash which when unloosed will turn on full force a consuming desire for revenge.

Coach Clipper Smith, of the Tarheels used few men in his game against Florida last week. His lineup was composed almost entirely of veterans, and tho the 'Gators did take his measure, he is priming his guns this week, with the warriors from Tigertown as his target.

As flankmen, the Wolfpack presents Gurneau, versatile athlete and Captain with Greason as his running mate. These two men are playing their third season and have certainly improved with age. Tho being about equal with such men as Patterson, Werts, and Fleming as footballers, they will have weight in their favor on an average of about 15 pounds per man. Our flanks will have their job cut out for them, but nevertheless Clemson asks for no quarter in this direction.

With Seigel and Bowles out Neely is faced with a grave task in replacing them with par men. However, Flagg and several others have showed power that will effectively stem any tide N. C. State may turn loose in their direction. This loss of a regular guard and tackle is a tough proposition at any rate.

From tackle to tackle the Tiger line was found even by the great McEver to be invincible. Provided these two holes are plugged the Wolfpack backs will need plan other than sojourns thru our forward wall. Facing Fordham and Co. will be such veterans as Cobb, Duke, Espy, Lefort and Wilson, a line that faced the advances of Florida for four quarters almost without change. The weight in this department will be varying little, not over five to ten pounds per huskie.

In the backfield, the Tigers with their, as yet, weak offense and unorganized defense no prediction of relative strength can be made. Priester, who everyone insists on calling a "substitute" and Frankie Clark carry fifty percent of Clemson's dynamite. Armstrong is due to get going some of these days and may select this game for his impetus. Harvin, high yardage man at Tennessee should be all set to show his last years form. When right he is a mountain of power and was in a large measure responsible for the misery Clemson dealt the North Carolina boys last year.

The Wolfpack backfield functioned last week with four men who are old heads at their posts. McQuage and Cumisky proved hard to stop before. They both have weight and carry it well. They will account for several yards unless properly cared for.

All in all, it certainly seems Saturday must be Clemson's day to shake off the shadow and bring home the bacon. Neely has tried to touch the vital spark in his system that wins ball games. Tho the defense looked bad against the Vols, this is the one game of the season we should take. Just what the verdict will be should be hard to foretell, but it is the prediction that when the returns come in from Charlotte it won't be another landslide.

TIGER CUBS DEFEAT ERSKINE FRESHMEN

Powerful Offensive Unleashed In Opening Game

Led by three flashy backs, the Clemson Cubs unleashed a smashing offensive on Riggs Field last Saturday to soundly trounce the first year Erskine squad to the tune of 27-0. A crowd of about 1500 saw the hopelessly out-classed Erskiners put up a stiff-lipped fight with their backs to the wall.

The stellar performance of the day was the spectacular broken field running of Henry Woodward, the "Blond Blizzard" of Columbia High's last year's championship team. In Woodward, paired with Stevens and Robertson, another star of high school renown, the new boys have a back field machine which should rate second to none in the state this year. While they were in the fray these three gained consistently and almost at will. It was they who accounted for the four touchdowns of the day: Stevens making two, and Woodward and Robertson one each.

Early in the first quarter, Woodward, outstripping his interference, dashed 18 yards around right end for the only score of the half. The Cubs' second tally came in the third quarter, when Erskine punted from their own 4-yard stripe to their 25-yard line. On the next play Stevens slithered off left tackle behind good interference for the counter. Soon afterward, Woodward returned Sanders' punt 45 yards to the Seceders four-yard marker, and Stevens dived through center for the goal. The young Tigers' last score came in the last quarter when Robertson intercepted McCaw's pass and galloped 45 yards down the left side line for the touchdown. Woodward's toe functioned well in making from placement three of the four tries for the extra points.

Only slightly less spectacular and quite as perfect was the performance of the baby Bengals' forward wall. The elephantine front presented by such stalwart linesmen as Hulvey, Cummins, Lewis, and McConnell proved to be utterly impenetrable to the thrusts of the Seceder backs and the drives of the visitors' line. And on the offensive, the Cub forward men never failed to open a gap through which not even the most mediocre of ball carriers could have failed to gain ground. The Erskine backs were repeatedly pulled down behind the scrimmage line by the 225 pound Hulvey. Yarbrough played heads up football at center, and both Ackis and Tobey functioned well at the end positions.

The midget Erskine eleven, suffering from a lack of talent in the rear sector, never really had an opportunity to take the offensive, as is shown by the fact that not a single first down was marked up to their credit. McCaw, however, a fleet half back, had some very pretty

TIGERS FLOUNDER AGAINST VOLS.

SPORTS

CLEMSON DEFEATED BY TENNESSEE SATURDAY

Bengals Fail to Hold Furious Offensive of Vols

Led by Johnny Bayless, "Bool" McEver, and Big Bill Cox, and a host of others too numerous to mention, Major Bob Neyland's Tennessee Volunteers trampled a fighting Tiger eleven on Shield-Watkins field by the overwhelming score of 44-0 last Saturday.

The Major had been brooding over the loss of so many lettermen last year including the great Bobby Dodd, a quarterback of national distinction who brought the Orange and White her first sight of the All-American sun since Thayer stormed the citadel back in 1925. He also concluded that his material from the freshman squad would be too inexperienced, but after watching the vast parade of sophomores which he put on exhibition in the Clemson game, it does not take much thinking to know that he was never more wrong in his life.

They blocked and tackled like the most able of veterans, and pranced and ran with the ball like a herd of wild stallions. They seemed to take a special liking to the Clemson ends for they went around that position so much that it looked like they might have mistaken it for a Maypole. All told, the Vols. circled the Tiger outpost for a net gain of 145 yards. Nobody that Neely could put on his flanks could stop the flood of Tennessee runs, and if it had not been for the superlative work of Angus Fordham, Fred Hooks, Heineman, and Harvin in backing up the line the Vols speedsters would have ambled down the field for many more long sprints.

Despite the apparent weakness of the Tiger flanks, it is doubtful whether the greatest pair of ends ever in the south—Shiver and Nash—could have done much better even in their most halcyon days if they had been pitted against the almost perfect blanket of interference that the Vols presented Saturday. Not only did they clear great swaths of space around the Tiger outposts, but they went right on into the Clemson secondary defense and continued their deadly work. Such was the condition when McEver and Bayless got away for 67 and 62 yards respectively.

The masterly offensive exhibition of the Vols was the out-standing feature of the game. They piled up eleven first downs compared to two for the Tigers, the latter making both of theirs in the final quarter after Neyland had cleared the bench of his lowliest substitutes.

Johnny Bayless, one of Neyland's inexperienced sophomores, had a bad day, and only gained 118 yards. He was the high ground gainer of the day. Beattie Feathers, another sophomore, couldn't get going either. He only made 75 yards. Gene McEver made 71 yards in the few minutes he played, Brackett 42, Cox, 40, Petruzzie 38, and Wynn 34 for a grand total of 418 yards as compared with 54 for the Tigers.

CLARK AND HARVIN SHINE

Clarke garnered more than a third of the Tiger yardage, and Priester, Hook, and Cooper divided most of that which was left. Harvin, however, was the chief ground gainer of the day when the kick off returns are taken into consideration. Tennessee kicked to Clemson seven times, and Harvin brought back six of them for a total of 147 yards. His return after the Vols had scored their fifth touchdown was good for 34 yards. He almost got away for a distant gallop, but "Breezy" Wynn slipped up and caught him from behind just as he was about to get into the clear.

VOLS BLOCK KICK

At the beginning it looked like Tennessee was in for a hard time, but following their second punt which Harvely let roll dead on the nine yard line, Harvely lost four yards on a fake kick. Then, out of a clear sky, Harvely thinking the goal line the end line, attempted a quick kick, but the Tennessee line was too fast and Saunders slipped through to block the punt and Cox recovered for a touchdown. Hickman failed to kick the extra point.

This sudden onset seemed to be a signal for further hostilities, for shortly afterwards McEver sliced his way off tackle after Fordham seemed to have him down, and continued 57 yards down the field to cross the goal as Harvin made a despairing leap at his heels. Hickman, the "little giant", again failed to kick the goal.

Tennessee renewed their hostilities in the second quarter with even greater vigor. Feathers made 27 around left end and shortly afterward Brackett ambled around the other end for 16 yards to score. Patterson was right on his heels, but missed him a fraction. The Vols tallied again before the quarter half ended on a 25 yard pass from Petruzzie to Cox.

Bayless, not to be outdone by the "Big Bool", slipped off of left tackle for 62 yards to score the fifth touchdown; Disney and Feathers scored later to make the count 44-0 in favor of the Vols.

The only department in which the Vols were not in comparable was in kicking their points after touchdown and penalties. They only got two out of seven tries for the goal, and were set back 60 yards in penalties whereas the Tigers were not set back a time.—E.R.K.

by slow interference and an inability to find a hole through the line of scrimmage. H. McCown, at quarter, should be accredited with some nice line plunging which should have showed up much better with the proper interference. Then too the Seceders were handicapped by a total lack of reserves. Their line was consequently sluggish and slow on the jump compared with the constantly replenished forces of the Cubs. The young Seceders fought stubbornly, however, and showed no signs of cracking under the strain.

No wonder men smoke PIPES!

EVERY PIPE SMOKER has the satisfaction of knowing he has one masculine right that the women won't take away from him. They do leave our pipes alone.

And though the girls may not know it, they're leaving us one of the finest smokes a man can have.

There's something calm and soothing about a pipe and good tobacco. It leads to clear-headed thinking. Perhaps that's why the leaders—the real men of the world—are pipe smokers.

College men like a pipe—packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth, the favorite pipe tobacco in 42 out of 54 colleges. It's cut especially for pipes, to give a cooler, drier smoke. You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or for a special sample packet, write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleven process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ packet package to $1.50 pound humid tin.

A nerve system for energetic skyscrapers

Long before the huge bulk of a new skyscraper looms up, Bell System men have planned its nerve system—the maze of telephone cables and wires so vital to its business activities.

From the inception of a building design, telephone engineers work hand in hand with the architects. They determine the telephone needs of thousands of future tenants. Then they plan cable shafts rising from cellar to roof and the grid of under-floor ducts that will put telephones within easy reach of every occupant.

There's a real thrill in working out these plans, for without telephones the immense structures of today would hardly be practicable.
